

My Weekend Routine

=====

For me, the weekend is the free time to spend with my family and friends, it is a repeated routine, but we are waiting for it to do many things, my day starts with prayer and reading Surat Al-Kahf, as a successful Muslim, on my weekly routine,, and then we start the preparation for family Lunch meal on Friday, when we all gather to spend time with grandfather, Actually the most beautiful thing in my weekly routine is that it renews positive energies for more success for the following week.
